[redacted] Talked with Dorothy Fosdick concerning our work with Senator Henry M. Jackson. She confirmed that [redacted] was meeting with the Senator today. I told Miss Fosdick I wanted to be sure that the Senator was receiving all possible support on the NSA matter. She said she was sure he was and she would let us know if he desired anything further.

[redacted] Talked to Representative William Bates and advised him informally of possible news releases to be made over the weekend by several former presidents of the National Student Association acting in concert. Since the releases are expected to deal directly with the prime thrust of the editorials discussed with Mr. Bates yesterday afternoon, it was agreed that we would meet again on Monday when those news items would be available. On meeting Monday, the other items for Mr. Bates use will be furnished.

[redacted] Received a call from Mr. J. Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, who noted the information contained in the Carl Rowen editorial relating to the Prague visit of Robert Scheer, Managing Editor of Ramparts. [redacted]
